

Education and Supportive Networks for Young People

Advocates for Children of New York Inc.	New York City	Providing individualized assistance and informational outreach to help ensure that students from marginalized populations, including low-income students with disabilities, students living in shelter or foster care, and English language learners, can continue to participate in school despite pandemic disruptions
Big Brothers Big Sisters of America (BBBS)	United States	Serving almost 10,000 children a year in Cincinnati, Birmingham, Southeast Florida, East Tennessee, Southwest Michigan, and elsewhere to ensure kids stay virtually connected to their mentors during this time of physical distancing.
Books for Kids	United States	Supporting early reading and literacy skills by ensuring that disadvantaged families and kids living in homeless shelters have access to a library of books and guided story time
Breakthrough New York	New York City	Providing summer and after-school tutoring to middle schoolers from low-income backgrounds
DonorsChoose	United States	Doubling donations through the DonorsChoose platform to provide classroom essentials at rural schools and schools where 75% of students are eligible for free or reduced-price lunch
DREAM	New York City	Using baseball and softball as entry points to help more than 2,500 students from kindergarten through college build academic and socioemotional skills in Harlem, the South Bronx, and Newark
Figure Skating in Harlem	New York City	Guiding around 150 young women in elementary through high school to grow in health, emotional wellbeing,

		and leadership by combining figure skating with academic support
George Jackson Academy	New York City	Supplying laptops, headphones, robotics kits, and software to enable effective remote education for middle school boys from low-income families
Harlem Academy	New York City	Providing increased tuition assistance to families, laptops for remote learning, and individualized personal support for student
Harlem Educational Activities Fund	New York City	Providing academic and socioemotional support, as well as cultural enrichment, to students in sixth grade through college
Hostos Community College Foundation	New York City	Providing emergency financial support to 200 students at Hostos Community College in the Bronx
Hudson River Community Sailing	New York City	Encouraging nearly 250 students from public schools in Manhattan's Chelsea and Inwood neighborhoods to cultivate leadership and academic skills through sailing
Hunter College Foundation	New York City	Hiring an additional full-time counselor to provide mental health support to thousands of students, many from low-income families, as they face stresses including increased insecurity in food, finances, and employment
Institute of International Education	United States	Assisting international students on college campuses in the U.S. who have been impacted by the pandemic in meeting essential needs through the Emergency Student Fund
New Heights	New York City	Combining competitive basketball with academic support and nutrition counseling for 250 students in elementary through high school

Pace University	New York City	Providing paid six- to eight-week internship experiences to 20 or more Pace students to assist on the front lines of relief work at a local partner nonprofit
Playworks	New York City	Developing and distributing virtual educational resources that can be used by teachers and partner schools both in person and remotely
Raising a Reader Massachusetts	New York City	Addressing educational disparities by helping families in low-income communities access books and virtual guided reading lessons
Rocking the Boat	New York City	Helping almost 300 young people from the South Bronx set goals and develop self-confidence by learning to row and sail, collaboratively building wooden boats, and helping restore urban waterways
Row New York	New York City	Cultivating confidence and a strong work ethic for hundreds of young New Yorkers by combining competitive rowing with rigorous academic support
South Bronx United	New York City	Using soccer as a matrix to build personal and academic skills to support nearly 200 students as they prepare to go to high school or college
Sponsors for Educational Opportunity	New York City	Providing direct assistance as well as academic, personal, and technical assistance to families adapting to distance learning to help nearly 2,000 students focus on academics
StreetSquash	New York City	Helping young people in Harlem realize their full academic, athletic, and personal potential through squash and wrap-around academic and social support services

Success Academy	New York City	Creating a standardized social-emotional learning curriculum to help students understand their emotions, set goals and make responsible decisions, and build positive, empathetic relationships
Summer Search	New York City	Supporting hundreds of high school students with full-time mentors as they navigate the academic and personal dimensions of the crisis