

The Fulbright Foundation in Greece

and

The Aristotle University of Thessaloniki School of Medicine

Present a discussion with

Dr. Ruth Faden

on

“Better, Healthier, More Beautiful: The Ethics of Biomedical Human Enhancement”

Dr. Faden is Executive Director of the Johns Hopkins Berman Institute of Bioethics and Philip Franklin Wagley Professor of Biomedical Ethics at Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health

Program Moderator: Prof. Vassilios Tarlatzis, MD, Ph.D., Vice President of the Aristotle University School of Medicine

Monday, December 17, 2007

11 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

School of Medicine Conference Room

(Administration Building of the School of Medicine, opposite AHEPA Hospital)

The program will be conducted in English

For more information contact: 2310-242-905, ext. 3107

The Great Ideas series supports educational and cultural connections between Greece and the United States. Spearheaded by the Fulbright Foundation in Greece on the occasion of its 60th anniversary, the goal of the series is to bring noted American experts and artists to Greece to perform and discuss current topics of interests to the Greek and American people. The series is organized with the support of the Stavros Niarchos Foundation, the U.S. Embassy in Athens and the American Consulate General in Thessaloniki.

The Fulbright Foundation in Greece
and
The American College of Thessaloniki
University Division of Anatolia

present a discussion with

Dr. Ruth Faden
on

"The Moral Challenges Posed by Pandemics"

Dr. Faden is Executive Director of the Johns Hopkins Berman Institute of Bioethics, and Philip Franklin Wagley Professor of Biomedical Ethics at Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health

Monday, December 17, 2007, 6:30 p.m.

Raphael Hall Performing Arts Center Anatolia College, Pylaia

For more information contact: 2310-242-905, ext. 3107-3101

The Great Ideas series supports educational and cultural connections between Greece and the United States. Spearheaded by the Fulbright Foundation in Greece on the occasion of its 60th anniversary, the goal of the series is to bring noted American experts and artists to Greece to perform and discuss current topics of interest to the Greek and American people. The series is organized with the support of the Stavros Niarchos Foundation, the U.S. Embassy in Athens and the American Consulate General in Thessaloniki.

Hazlis & Rivas Co. Ltd

Η ΠΡΩΤΗ ΠΡΩΙΝΗ ΕΓΧΗΜΕΡΙΣ ΕΝ ΘΕΣΣΑΛΟΝΙΚΗ

The University of Athens - Department of Hygiene, Epidemiology and Medical Statistics

and

The Fulbright Foundation in Greece

present a discussion with

Dr. Ruth Faden

on

"The Moral Challenges Posed by Pandemic Influenza"

Dr. Faden is Executive Director of the Johns Hopkins Berman Institute of Bioethics, and Philip Franklin Wagley Professor of Biomedical Ethics at Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health

Wednesday, December 19, 2007, 1:00-2:30 p.m.
Athens University Cultural Centre «KOSTIS PALAMAS»
(48 Akademias & Sina Sts)

For more information contact: 210-746-2090

The Great Ideas series supports educational and cultural connections between Greece and the United States. Spearheaded by the Fulbright Foundation in Greece on the occasion of its 60th anniversary, the goal of the series is to bring noted American experts and artists to Greece to perform and discuss current topics of interest to the Greek and American people. The series is organized with the support of the Stavros S. Niarchos Foundation and the U.S. Embassy in Athens.

